

Katherine Zook
Certification Program Scholarship
Awarded By
The Government Finance Officers Association of SC

Scholarship Information and Application Instructions:

The Government Finance Officers Association of South Carolina (GFOASC) is a nonprofit Organization that promotes the professional development of its members by continuing education and training programs, by providing a forum for the exchange of information related to all aspects of government finance, and by recommending and supporting improvements to the financial administration of all governmental units of South Carolina. The membership includes State, City, and County Government, Colleges and Universities, and School Districts. By awarding the Katherine Zook Certification Program Scholarship, the GFOASC provides financial assistance to members seeking to further their professional development by taking part in the Government Finance Officers Certification Program.
